Two deaths occurred within a few nours of each other at 161 West Second South street early yesterday morning. One was an old man named Cullen Farrham, who was a soldler in John-son's army and came to Salt Lake with the army to fight the Mormons. For many years he followed the occupation of a miner, and recently was living at the address named. He was a years of age, and, as far as known, had no relatives in this part of the country. Old age and constant debility was the age and general debility was the cause of death of death.

The other demise was that of Dominico Rudellat, an Italian, who, for a number of years, conducted a saloon on West Temple street, in partnership with a man named Ferando. Endellat suffered with Bright's disease for years, which was accountable for his sudden taking off.

Both bodies were taken charge of by Undertaker Evans. The time of the funerals has not yet been fixed. Jerome Baker, of the California lodg-ing house, is another whom the grim reaper gathered in yesterday.

NEW DEPARTURE. Political Party.

Chicago, Nov. 11.-Miss Francis It is still a question whether the board will consider the grossly imperfect returns from the Twenty-fifth, Thirty-fifth and Forty-second. The tally sheet for the Thirty-fifth is scaled up with the ballots, and it was stated yesterday that when the Fifty-second is reached the official tally sheet may be also reported scaled up with the ballots, contrary to law and the plain instructions. The ballots must remain resolution.

but he wanted all tallies so marked to be treated the same.

Callister thought the vote in question should not go to Howe. If it did, it was equivalent to saving that one stroke of the pen counted for two tallies.

Stewart brought down the house in closing the debate by urging his colleague "to look at the matter bindly." He corrected himself by saying he meant justly.

While the debate was in progress Arthur Pratt was engaged with some of the members "rooting" for Howe, and poured a very plausible solution into their ears on what tallies counted.

Stewart's motion to cut Howe's vote resulted as follows: Ayes—Allen, Buckle, Callister Morris and Stewart, Noes—Daie, Diehl, Hayward, Le Prohon, Lloyd, Mulvey, Wiscomb and Newell, Absent—O'Mear and Deager.
